NEW EQUIPMENT BEING ADDED AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Improvements to the physical plant and the purchase of new items of equipment, authorized by the directors of the Warner hospital at their first fall meeting Friday night, will expand the already extensive services offered patients at the local hospital.

The purchase of an Autotechnicon at a cost of $1,200 will make more quickly available the results of post-operative tissue examinations. The pathological study of tissues involves many laboratory processes that require several hours to complete and it is estimated that the Autotechnicon, an automatic processor of tissues, will save several technician hours annually and will greatly facilitate the results of the examinations which are routine at the hospital following surgery, a board member said.

The addition of an infant oxygen and pressure lock used to resuscitate premature babies or newborn infants who have respiratory difficulties, has already saved the life of one baby. Payment for this equipment is the current project of the Women's Auxiliary of the hospital.

Install Pillow Radio
The tests being made of the Lavolette, now on trial at the hospital, is being watched with interest. This device brings lavatory facilities to the bedside. They cost $1,200 each. Decision as to their acquisition depends on patient reaction and the results of the test now being made of their use.

Over $3,000 has been expended in completing the new dark room in the X-ray department and in the acquisition of additional X-ray equipment.

Pillow radio sets have been installed in the hospital for use of patients. This is a new device which provides radio entertainment from a speaker that fits under the pillow. It assures quietness throughout the hospital as the speaker has a harsh tone when withdrawn from under the pillow and cannot be used except in the manner for which it is designed.

Had Busy Summer
High occupancy during the months of June, July and August reflected in the statement for the period which showed earned income for the three months was $44,555.29. Salaries and wages were $44,555.29. Supplies $19,420.59 and direct and fixed expenses $25,644.17.

Average number of patients per day in June totaled 73; in July, 67, while August showed a daily average of 76. There were 75 births in June, 71 in July and 90 in August. Admittances in June were 384, July 335, and August, 340. Private and semi-private facilities were completely occupied almost the entire three months period.

NEW CAFETERIA AT HIGH SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY

Gettysburg high school's new cafeteria is scheduled to open Monday with approximately 500 students expected to utilize the facilities each day.

Mrs. Paul Burkholder, dietician for the cafeteria, noted that the lunches to be served will provide between one-third and one-half of the day's nutritional requirements of the youngsters.

She also hopes that the great variety of food planned, and the types of food will provide an object lesson in better food habits by accustoming the youngsters to variety and the need for various nutritional values in foods.

Permanent Staff Of Three
The quantities of food that will be needed in the cafeteria will vary from day to day, and until it can be determined how large a group will use the cafeteria no estimates can be made concerning the amounts to be bought by the school lunch center. For the first day, however, 75 pounds of meat have been bought.

A permanent staff of three will help Mrs. Burkholder in the kitchen. To be augmented by a student staff of six to eight during the noon hour.

Workmen Friday were placing the last of blue tinted glass in the south side of the 100 foot long cafeteria. The glass will act as a filter for the rays of the sun, while permitting the sunshine to enter the building. Friday and today workmen were placing stoves and other equipment in the approximately 30- by 40-foot kitchen in the cafeteria.

Have 42 Tables
Forty-two tables, each designed to provide space for six students, fill the main portion of the cafeteria. Walls are of buff colored tile to a height of three feet. Most of the wall space is taken over by huge windows that run practically the length of the room.

The cafeteria has a maroon color. (Please turn to page 8)

In commemoration of Dog Week, now being observed nationally, we publish the following popular Eddie Guest poem, "A Boy And His Dog":
A boy and his dog make a glorious pair;
No better friendship is found anywhere.
For they talk and they walk and
and they run and they play, and they have their deep secrets for many a day.
And that boy has a comrade who thinks and who feels, who walks down the road with a dog at his heels.

He may go where he will and his dog will be there,
May revel in mud and his dog will not care;
Faithful he'll stay for the slightest command
And bark with delight at the touch of his hand;
Oh, he owns a treasure which nobody steals,
Who walks down the road with a dog at his heels.

No other can lure him away from his side,
He's proud against riches and station and pride;
Fine dress does not charm him, and flattery's breath
Is lost on the dog, but he's faithful to death.
He sees the great soul which the body conceals,
Oh, it's great to be young with a dog at your heels!

The Wall Street Journal recently took an unusual approach to the problem of socialized medicine. It pointed out that when new "miracle" drugs—such as the sulfas, penicillin, cortisone and so on—are first discovered their cost is extremely high.

630 HUNTERS MAY SECURE DOE LICENSES HERE

Local hunters will be able to obtain doe licenses at the county treasurer's office in Adams county in connection with the forthcoming deer season.

The Game commission has made 630 licenses available for hunting doe in the county but 40 percent of those licenses, or 252, will be issued by the state Department of Revenue, Bureau of Miscellaneous Licenses.

Only 630 hunters will be permitted to hunt antlerless deer in the county December 14 and 15. This figure is based on the estimated number of deer in the county, the estimated percentage of hunters who obtain a deer, and the number of doe killed in Adams county last year, a total of more than 200.

Special County License

Antlerless deer licenses will be valid only in the county for which they are issued—which means that licenses obtained in Adams county will be usable only in Adams county. Local hunters who wish to hunt doe in other counties must either have the county treasurer's office for license, or must write the State Department of Revenue for the special license, naming the county in which they wish to hunt.

If all licenses given a county treasurer have been granted, a hunter may obtain a license from the state department of revenue.

Limit Non-Residents
To give Pennsylvania hunters first choice on the special licenses no permits will be issued to non-resident hunters before November 14.

The number of deer in the county seems to be "normal." District Game Protector Leo Bushman reported today. The number of deer in the mountains remains about the same, while the number of deer in the lowlands appear to be increasing.

Bushman also reported that red foxes are becoming plentiful again. The foxes are doing much damage, he added. Two traps caught six half-grown reds in one area, while two more traps were set and two more foxes caught on another farm nearby.

At the den where the six were captured the hides of eight muskrats, two porcupines and a chicken were found. At another fox den the hide of six chickens, 28 muskrats and many rabbits were found.

Allied Warplanes Pound 1,000 Red Vehicles Moving To Front; foe Predicts Another Invasion

Tokyo, Sept. 29 (AP)—Red China "bombs" asserted the United States had wrecked the Korean front and is preparing amphibious landings on both coasts of North Korea.

A Peking broadcast monitored here said the Americans plan to strike Red forces in the Yalu river boundary between North Korea and Manchuria and to bomb Communist bases in North China.

The propaganda broadcast just 24 hours after Gen. Omar N. Bradley arrived to confer with United Nations Commander Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Bradley is chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff. A head-quarters statement said the air and ground attacks "indicate a variety of mutual interest."

Elsewhere sharp but relatively minor skirmishes flared.

Premier And Diplomat Will Plead Oil Dispute In U.N.

London, Sept. 29 (AP) — Iran's Premier Mohammed Mossadeq and Britain's Sir Gladwyn Jebb will plead the case for their government in the boiling oil dispute before the U.N. Security Council next week.

This was disclosed today in London and Tehran. It will pit a polished British diplomat against a frail highly emotional Iranian politician in a controversy which the British say endangers world peace. Britain tossed the long and bitter dispute over nationalization of Iran's oil riches to the council yesterday.

TWO HANOVER DRIVERS CRASH

An automobile operated by Harvey A. Walton, 49, of Hanover R. 4, ran into the rear of a car driven by Ray R. Schuman, 19, of 39 Center street, Hanover, on the Gettysburg-Hanover road two miles east of Bonnevillie at 6:45 o'clock Friday evening, according to state police of the Gettysburg substitution.

Police said Schuman had slowed down for a car making a left turn in front of him. Damage to the Schuman car was estimated at $80, and to the Walton car at $40. No one was injured.

A second accident took place at the same place at 8:30 o'clock. Police said J. M. Smiley, 41, of Gettysburg R. 5, was going west. Walton's car was still parked at the scene of the previous accident, at the side of the road, and Smiley was looking at the car, police said. His front bumper hooked the fender of a car traveling east, operated by M. Sgt. James Lewis Miller, of Emmitsburg. Damage to Miller's car was estimated at $35 and to Smiley's car at $5.

Monday Is Last Day To Register

Monday will be the last day for Adams countians to register if they wish to vote in the forthcoming general election in November.

The county election board announced today that the commissioner's office in the court house will be open from 7 until 10 o'clock Monday evening in addition to the regular hours Monday, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. — to give residents an extra opportunity to register. Three registrars will be on duty.

630 HUNTERS MAY SECURE DOE LICENSES HERE

Local hunters will be able to obtain from the county treasurer 378 licenses to shoot antlerless deer in Adams county in connection with the forthcoming deer season.

The Game commission has made 630 licenses available for hunting doe in the county, but 40 percent of those licenses, or 252, will be issued by the state Department of Revenue, Bureau of Miscellaneous Licenses.

Only 630 hunters will be permitted to hunt antlerless deer in the county December 14 and 15. This figure is based on the estimated number of deer in the county, the estimated percentage of hunters who obtain a deer, and the number of doe killed in Adams county last year, a total of more than 200.

Special County License
Antlerless deer licenses will be valid only in the county for which they are issued—which means that licenses obtained in Adams county will be usable only in Adams county. Local hunters who wish to hunt doe in other counties must either write the county treasurers there for licenses, or must write the State Department of Revenue for the special license, naming the county in which they wish to hunt.

If all licenses given a county treasurer have been granted, a hunter may obtain a license, from the state department of revenue.

Before an individual is issued a doe license he must first obtain a regular hunting license.

Limit Non-Residents
To give Pennsylvania hunters first choice on the special licenses no permits will be issued to non-resident hunters before November 14.

The number of deer in the county seems to be "normal" District Game Protector Leo Bushman reported today. The number of deer in the mountains remains about the same, while the number of deer in the lowlands appear to be increasing.

Bushman also reported that red foxes are becoming plentiful again. The foxes are doing much damage, he added. Two traps caught six half-grown reds in one area while two more traps were set and two more foxes caught on another farm nearby. At the den where the six were captured the hides of eight muskrats, two pheasants and a chicken were found. At another fox den the hides of six chickens, 28 muskrats and many rabbits were found.

SEE FLARE IN SKY
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Clark, Gettysburg R. 4, reported this morning a bright flare in the eastern sky just before midnight Friday that first appeared to be a bright star moving toward the southeast and then disintegrated. The Clarks said the flare may have been pulled through the sky by a plane which could be heard and later seen in the vicinity of the flare. The light disappeared in about five minutes.

Allied Warplanes Pound 1,000 Red Vehicles Moving To Front; Foe Predicts Another Invasion

Tokyo, Sept. 29 (AP) — Red China tonight asserted the United States has wrecked the Kaesong truce talks and is preparing amphibious landings on both coasts of North Korea. A Peiping broadcast monitored here said the Americans plan to drive Red forces to the Yalu river boundary between North Korea and Manchuria, and to bomb Communist bases in northeast China.

The propaganda blast came just 24 hours after Gen. Omar N. Bradley arrived to confer with United Nations Commander Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway. Bradley is chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff. A headquarters statement said he and Ridgway discussed "military matters of mutual interest."

Presumably their talks covered the course of action to be taken by United Nations forces if the stalled truce talks break down altogether.

Peiping did not mention Ridgway's proposal, made Thursday, that talks be shifted from Kaesong to the vicinity of the no-man's land village of Songhyon, six miles southeast of there.

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea, Sept. 29 (AP) — Allied warplanes today roared through dark skies in pre-dawn attacks on an estimated 1,000 Communist vehicles.

The heavy road traffic apparently was a substitute for Red rail movements, disrupted by heavy air attacks during the past six weeks.

The main masses of trucks were spotted between Sariwon and Pyongyang, south of Yangdok and south of Wonsan. In these areas trains normally carry the bulk of Red supplies to the front.

Later Saturday a cold steady rain settled down over the Korean front. It blanketed out the air war, and almost all ground action.

Few Skirmishes
Except for a few scattered skirmishes, infantry of both sides huddled in foxholes and dugouts, trying to keep warm and dry.

At noon, rain clouds were so low it looked like dusk.

United Nations troops on the central front Friday recaptured a strategic hill southeast of Kumsong after a bitter two-day battle. The bodies of 703 Chinese Reds littered the hills.

Communists attacked the hill day and night Thursday. They drove off the Allies at 3:30 a.m. Friday.

The U. N. troops quickly counter-attacked and captured the high ground just 12 hours later.

In mountainous east-central Korea the Reds hurled U. N. soldiers off a 3,000-foot ridge northwest of Yangsu. An Allied counterattack failed to recapture it.

Reds Repulse Allies
The Allies again tried to capture a 3,500-foot peak north of the "punchbowl" Friday. Again they were thrown back. They have been after the height for nearly two weeks.

The Reds forced the Allies into another limited withdrawal Friday on the west-central front.

Elsewhere sharp but relatively minor skirmishes flared.

Allied aircraft flew 907 combat missions Friday, most of them against Red ground troops directly in front of U.N. positions.

Heavy Enemy Losses
The Fifth Air Force said the close support missions accounted for 527 Red soldiers killed, two ammunition dumps and seven bunkers destroyed and 17 artillery and mortar pieces knocked out.

The air force said Allied planes destroyed 284 Red vehicles and damaged 388 during the day.

United Nations warships roamed up and down both coasts Friday, pounding Communist transport lines and troops positions. Wonsan, east coast port, was bombarded for the 25th consecutive day.

Teachers' Institute To Be Held In York
The second day of the Adams County Teachers' Institute will be held Friday, October 12, at the William Penn senior high school, York. County Superintendent of Schools J. Floyd Slaybaugh announced today.

As a result of the institute all public schools in the county will be closed on October 12. Superintendent Slaybaugh added. The teachers held the first day of their institute here prior to the opening of school and are holding the second day in connection with a district teachers' session. The teachers will receive $10 for their attendance.

THIRD TAX BOOST SINCE START OF WAR IS ASSURED

Washington, Sept. 29 (AP)—An estimated tax increase of between $5,450,000,000 and $7,200,000,000—the third tax boost since the start of the Korean war—now is virtually assured for Americans within a few weeks.

The Senate last night completed action on its version of the 1951 general revenue-raising measure. Final passage was by a 57 to 19 vote after nine days of stormy, sometimes bitter debate.

The Senate bill carries $1,750,000,000 less estimated revenue than the measure passed by the House in June. Conferees from the two branches will get together next week to try to work out a compromise figure.

Less Than Truman Asked

One Senate conferee predicted today the final result would be closer to the Senate version than that of the House—probably around $6,000,000,000.

The final total is certain to be far less than the $10,000,000,000 which President Truman said was necessary to balance the budget in view of heavy defense spending.

As passed by the Senate, the tax hike would be the second largest in the nation's history. In September, 1950, three months after the shooting began in Korea, a $6,100,000,000 general tax boost—the largest ever to become law—was enacted. A $3,900,000,000 excess profits tax bill was made law January 3 this year.

Excise Levies Up Too

The Senate bill would raise personal income taxes by around $2,394,000,000 effective November 1. It would do this by levying an additional 11 per cent tax on the tax each individual now pays except that those in brackets above $50,000 would get somewhat softer treatment.

The House proposed to boost personal income taxes $2,854,000,000 a year, by levying a 12½ per cent additional tax on everyone.

Both measures would raise excise or sales levies on many things the average person buys. These include automobiles, trucks, gasoline, cigarettes, liquor, beer, wine, a long list of appliances such as dishwashers and clothes driers, and fountain pens and mechanical pencils.

Tax On Opera Tickets

The consumer gets a few breaks in the new excise rate schedules. The tax on electricity bills would be eliminated as would levies on baby powder and lotions.

There would be a reduction in the federal tax on telephone messages and cameras and films. The admissions tax no longer would apply to symphony concert and opera tickets.

Corporations would have to pay a 32 per cent top income tax under both bills instead of 47 per cent as at present. But the Senate knocked out about $600,000,000 of increase in excess profits levies voted by the House.

A verdict of $100 million was the United States' first such ruling against chemical and atomic firms guilty of antitrust violations by participating in a cartel to split up world markets.

The Remington Arms Co. Inc. of Bridgeport, Conn. was the third big defendant.

ARGENTINA'S REVOLT OVER; PERON IS ANGRY

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Sept. 29 (AP)—President Juan Peron today planned rough treatment for "traitors" and unworthy military leaders "the government accuses of revolting and plotting to assassinate Peron and his wife, Eva."

Congress has passed a law ordering execution of armed forces officers whom the state radio said started a civil war yesterday. It also approved a law allowing the administration to order changes of any kind for military officers, both on active service or in retirement. The government radio earlier had proclaimed a state of siege—modified martial law.

Government communiques named two retired generals, Benjamin Menendez and Arturo Rawson, as leaders of an officially labeled "bareheaded revolt."

Report One Dead

El Laborista, a labor morning newspaper, said today that one loyal junior officer was killed and four injured in action at the army's Campo de Mayo or Palomar Air Force base, said by the government to be another focal point.

The exciting day started with planes flying low over Buenos Aires Friday morning and dropping leaflets calling for revolution. It ended with no shootings reported. A few fist fights were the only sign of violence in the capital.

The government radio proclaimed at 11:10 a.m. that civil war had broken out. Then at 12:57 p.m., the radio announced failure of the revolt.

Penn State Junior Killed On Hayride

State College, Pa., Sept. 29 (AP)—Cornelia Joyce Kappes, 19, of Oakmont, Pa., a junior at Pennsylvania State college, was fatally injured last night during a fraternity hayride.

College officials said Miss Kappes was returning with other members of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity party when she slipped off the tractor pulling the hay wagon and fell under a moving wheel.

Dr. E. H. Adams of Center county hospital said the girl died of internal injuries, the heavy wheel apparently crushing her abdomen. She died shortly before midnight, an hour after the accident.

Miss Kappes' escort, John Carney of Pittsburgh, told authorities she was riding on the tractor with the driver when she decided to return to the wagon. "She missed her step and fell between the tractor and wagon," Carney was quoted. "The wheel rolled over her."

Barbershops Not Public Forums But Markets Of Tonsorial Arts

Imagine a life so crowded a man has to make an appointment with a barber, just as if he were going to the dentist. A fellow used to pick off-hand the week or month he was going to get a haircut. Now he has to name the minute and hour, if he wants to be sure to find a chair.

The decline of the traditional barbershop began with the vanishing of the two-bit haircut, now as rare as a five-cent beer. The barber in the old days knew there was no use to hurry, because how could a man ever get rich at that price?

But today the barber gets $1 to $1.50 a head. With every snip of his scissors he can buy a brick for his new country home. Naturally he doesn't want to pause and parley.

Nor does he want to give an ailing customer his own homemade recipe for curing ulcers. He's too busy earning his own ulcer.

And no longer does he wind up the job with the time-honored question of his profession: "Comb it wet or dry?" He demands to know what tone you prefer, and if you say you don't want any, he accepts your two-bit tip with a look of scorn. And you sink out feeling cheap and guilty.

There is no doubt the barber is better off today, and the haircuts are better. But much of the old fun of going to him is gone. The sense of sharing a haircut is lost. It is a chore for both him and you, and too often you leave him with the air of having committed a public misdemeanor, because you didn't buy a massage and a few drops of snell-nice.

But at today's prices a man has to choose whether he wants to make his barber or his own family happy with his paycheck. There just isn't enough for both.

Barbershops Not Public Forums But Markets Of Tonsorial Arts

By HAL BOYLE

One of the classic American spectacles is watching a haircut. How long has it been since you watched a good clean haircut? Probably very.

Except in rural areas the barbershop has ceased to be a public forum and a haven of philosophers. It is a place for a barber to warm up his razor and to get a good laugh and a good tip.

Yes, it is gone the way of the old-fashioned grocery store. It has become a place for a barber to warm up his razor and to get a good laugh and a good tip.

THIRD TAX BOOST SINCE START OF WAR IS ASSURED

Washington, Sept. 29 (AP)—An estimated tax increase of between $5,450,000,000 and $7,200,000,000—the third tax boost since the start of the Korean war—now is virtually assured for Americans within a few weeks.

The Senate last night completed action on its version of the 1951 general revenue-boosting measure. Final passage was by a 57 to 19 vote after nine days of stormy, sometimes bitter debate.

The Senate bill carries $1,750,000,000 less estimated revenue than the measure passed by the House in June. Conferees from the two branches will get together next week to try to work out a compromise figure.

Less Than Truman Asked
One Senate conferee predicted today the final result would be closer to the Senate version than that of the House—probably around $6,000,000,000.

The final total is certain to be far less than the $10,000,000,000 which President Truman said was necessary to balance the budget in view of heavy defense spending.

As passed by the Senate, the tax hike would be the second largest in the nation's history. In September, 1950, three months after the shooting began in Korea, a $6,100,000,000 general tax boost—the largest ever to become law—was enacted. A $3,900,000,000 excess profits tax bill was made law January 3 this year.

Excise Levies Up Too
The Senate bill would raise personal income taxes by around $2,394,000,000 effective November 1. It would do this by levying an additional 11 per cent tax on the tax each individual now pays except that those in brackets above $50,000 would get somewhat softer treatment.

The House proposed to boost personal income taxes $2,854,000,000 a year, by levying a 12½ per cent additional tax on everyone.

Both measures would raise excise or sales levies on many things the average person buys. These include automobiles, trucks, gasoline, cigarettes, liquor, beer, wine, a long list of appliances such as dishwashers and clothes driers, and fountain pens and mechanical pencils.

Tax Off Opera Tickets
The consumer gets a few breaks in the new excise rate schedules. The tax on electricity bills would be eliminated as would levies on baby powder and lotions.

There would be a reduction in the federal take on telegraph messages and cameras and films. The admissions tax no longer would apply to symphony concert and opera tickets.

Corporations would have to pay a 52 per cent income tax under both bills instead of 47 per cent as at present. But the Senate knocked out about $600,000,000 of increase in excess profits levies voted by the House.

ARGENTINA'S REVOLT OVER; PERON IS ANGRY

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Sept. 29 (AP)—President Juan Peron today planned rough treatment for "traitors" the government accuses of revolting and plotting to assassinate Peron and his wife, Eva.

Congress has passed a law ordering execution of armed forces of officers whom the state radio says started a civil war yesterday. It also approved a law allowing the administration to order changes of any kind for military officers, both on active service or in retirement. The government radio earlier had proclaimed a state of siege—modified martial law.

Government communiques named two retired generals, Benjamin Menendez and Arturo Rawson, as leaders of an officially labeled "hatched revolt."

Report One Dead
El Laborista, a labor morning newspaper, said today that one loyal junior officer was killed and four injured in action at the army's Campo de Mayo or Palomar Air Force base, said by the government to be another focal point.

The exciting day started with planes flying low over Buenos Aires Friday morning and dropping leaflets calling for revolution. It ended with no shootings reported. A few fist fights were the only sign of violence in the capital.

The government radio proclaimed at 11:10 a.m. that civil war had broken out. Then at 12:57 p.m., the radio announced failure of the revolt.

College officials said Miss Kappes was returning with other members of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity party when she slipped off the tractor pulling the hay wagon and fell under a moving wheel.

Dr. E. H. Adams of Center county hospital said the girl died of internal injuries, the heavy wheel apparently crushing her abdomen. She died shortly before midnight, an hour after the accident.

Miss Kappes' escort, John Carney of Pittsburgh, told authorities she was riding on the tractor with the driver when she decided to return to the wagon. "She missed her step and fell between the tractor and wagon," Carney was quoted. "The wheel rolled over her."

Barbershops Not Public Forums But Markets Of Tonsorial Arts

By HAL BOYLE

One of the dying American spectator sports is watching haircuts. How long has it been since you watched a good clean haircut? Probably years.

Except in rural utopias the barber shop has ceased to be a public forum and a haunt of philosophers. It is no longer the shabby but warm refuge where men came to be shorn and knit together by Saturday night laughter and gossip.

Yes, it is going the way of the old-fashioned grocery store. It has become a glittering supermarket of steam and bright metal and buzzing gadgets, a cathedral of the tonsorial arts.

"Big Business"

It is big business. The motto in most of these glossy temples is: "The customer is always welcome—but get it, and get out." Spectators are discouraged, and the barber wants a quick turnover—not an admiring audience. Why, I haven't seen a cuspidor in a barber shop since Franklin D. Roosevelt's first term.

There is nothing to make a client yearn to linger or watch the next man get a haircut. The barber works in silence, except maybe for a desultory remark or two on the baseball situation. But he no longer launches into a learned and informative discussion on the political situation. That takes time.

The service is all impersonal. The barber is fighting that clock. He wants to clip you, massage you, anoint you, or shave you—anything you want—but he wants to get you out of that chair as fast as possible, and get another man in.

Make Appointments

Leisure? I know people now who make appointments with a barber. Shades of the great American past!

She stated that approximately $300 was spent last year by the county unit for literature on cancer. She commended the cooperation of the school nurses in the county in distributing literature to pupils in the high schools last year.

Mrs. Myers' report showed the financial drive for the county last year, the goal for which was $3,000, netted $2,402.88. Of that amount $1,426.44 goes to the state and national fund.

Mrs. Ira Henderson and Mrs. Robert Neely attended the "Ingathering" at the Presbyterian homes at Carlisle and Newville on Thursday.

The September meeting of the Missionary society of the Lutheran church was held Tuesday evening in the parish house. Following the discussion, names of the secret pals were revealed and gifts were exchanged.

Mrs. Ira Henderson, troop committee president, presided at the meeting held Thursday evening at the scout house. Girl Scout Week will be the week of October 28 to November 3. At this time a drive for funds will be held. The Fairfield Girl Scout troop is sponsored by the Fairfield Lions club and consists of the Senior Scouts, Intermediate Scouts and Brownies. The next troop committee meeting will be held Thursday evening, October 18.

A chicken corn soup supper will be held this evening at the fire hall for the benefit of St. Mary's church. Serving will start at 4 o'clock.

Find 14 Bodies In
"Boxcar's" Wreckage

Malak, Japan, Sept. 29 (AP)—Japanese police reported Friday that 14 bodies were found in and near the wreckage of a U.S. Air Force C-119 Flying Boxcar which crashed near here Thursday.

The plane, assigned to the 314th Troop Carrier Group, was enroute to Tokyo from Ashiya Air Force Base in southern Japan.

A C-46 Commando which also was enroute to Tokyo crashed and burned early today in foothills near Hakone, seven miles west of Atsugi. It was carrying a crew of six and five passengers.

Japanese firemen and youths carried the bodies from the C-119 crash down the slope of a rugged mountain.

Writes Songs To Repay His Victims

Pittsburgh, Sept. 29 (AP)—A convicted swindler is composing songs which he says he hopes can be sold to repay victims of his $212,000 housing fraud.

"I don't want a penny for myself," declared Raymond E. Reynolds, 52-year-old former builder who is serving a 10-year jail sentence. "My greatest desire is to pay back those people from whom I obtained the money."

The once-dapper contractor asked the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph in a letter to help him peddle his tunes, most of which deal with romantic themes.

Reynolds was convicted of accepting down payments on homes which were never built. He was arrested in May of 1950 after a nationwide search which ended in Los Angeles.

York Springs

York Springs—The Rev. Glenn Rankin, who came to this area within the last few weeks to succeed the Rev. Donald G. Roemer as minister of the Church of God here, was heard during the week in a radio sermon over a nearby broadcasting station.

Initial plans have been laid for the conducting of the annual Halloween parade through the town during the latter part of October, under the auspices of the local Lions club.

East Berlin

East Berlin — Audrey Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Myers, York, spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Orpheus Myers, R. 2, in company with another York girl who is a classmate. Audrey has now recovered from the operation for appendicitis to which she submitted at the York hospital September 11.

Mrs. Leon Roos has received word that her father, Dr. S. P. Carter, Altoona bacteriologist, is much improved after spending several months confined to a hospital and his room due to the recurrence of a severe heart condition. During the week when Dr. Carter's condition was critical, Mrs. Roos spent the time at her parents' home in company with her daughter, Hannah.

A shooting match was conducted over the week-end by the East Berlin Fish and Game association at the association's farm north of town. This was the first event of this kind for the season, but more are planned.

Allen, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Weigand, near Hanover's schoolhouse, west of town, was christened recently at St. John's Lu-

Brown, and their young daughter, Kathy. L. Brown has been granted an extended leave after seeing much recent action in Korea.

Mrs. William McEl. Lott, near here, who underwent major surgery at the Union Memorial hospital, Baltimore, returned last week to her home where she is recuperating.

RAILROADS ASK
RATE INCREASE

Philadelphia, Sept. 29 (AP)—While spokesmen for the nation's big train passenger and freight railroads, and the railroad operating in Pennsylvania, unveiled charts and figures to prove the commuter doesn't pay his share of passenger fare.

Witnesses for the Penn. R.R., Reading, Baltimore and Ohio and other railroads in the state, Penn. Utility commission, said that higher commutation fares were necessary.

Only a handful of commuters were present at the hearing in city hall. Civic groups and other opponents of groups will have their chance to testify later. They agreed to allow railroad officials' testimony to be read into the record. Opposing counsel will receive copies of the testimony, and will have the right to study it and cross-examine witnesses at the next hearing on October 24.

Richard H. Clare, passenger agent for the Pennsylvania railroad, said "Commutation traffic in 1950 represented 42.4 per cent of the total passenger revenue, but produced only 6.4 per cent of the total passenger revenue of the Pennsylvania railroad."

The railroads, Clare said, are seeking increases which generally would add 50 cents to the cost of present weekly commutation tickets; $2.70 to the restricted (five-day-week) monthly tickets and $3.00 to unrestricted monthly tickets.

TRUMAN STIRS UP FLOOD OF REACTION FROM U. S. CHURCHMEN

Washington, Sept. 29 (AP) — President Truman's complaint against "pretty and insignificant" differences among churches at a time of world danger stirred up a flood of conflicting reaction today from religious leaders.

Some voiced wholehearted approval of his challenge to men of all religions to unite in a "common affirmation of faith" against the threat of Soviet communism.

The dissenters included one church editor who said he would be "afraid of a holy war, pitting Christians against the rest of the world."

Into Controversial Field

Standing in the pulpit of the National City Christian church last night, the president told an audience of 1,200, attending the first Washington pilgrimage of American churchmen, that he has failed to get men of various religions even to agree on a common statement of faith "in the face of the peril we confront today."

Moving into the field of age-old religious differences where political leaders seldom step, the President told the hushed audience:

"For sometime, I have been trying to bring a number of the great religious leaders of the world together in a common affirmation of faith and a common supplication to the one God that all profess. I have asked them to join in one common act which will affirm those religious and moral principles on which we all agree. x x x

"I am sorry to say that it has not yet been possible to bring the religious faiths together for this purpose of bearing witness that God is the way of truth and peace.

Laments Lack of Unity

"Even the Christian churches have not yet found themselves able to say, with one voice, that Christ is their Master and Redeemer and the Source of their strength against the hosts of irreligion and danger to the world and that will be the cause of world catastrophe. They haven't been able to agree on as simple a statement as that. I have been working at it for years. x x x

"We should lay aside our differences and come together now — for never have our differences seemed so petty and insignificant as they do in the face of the peril we confront today."

Dr. William H. Leach of Cleveland, O., editor of the publication, "Church Management" which helped sponsor the pilgrimage, said he was "mighty happy" to find the President comprehends so well "the need of religious faith." But he added: "I don't think he'll go very far on that proposal. I would be afraid of a holy war — pitting Christians against the rest of the world."

The president's own Baptist pastor here, Dr. Edward Hughes Pruden, however, said he has been "very heartily in favor of a common statement from the religious people of the world."

"I certainly feel that the believing world should have something in common to say to the unbelieving world. I sincerely hope that the President's remarks will help to bring to realization that possibility."

The Rev. J. Warren Hastings, pastor of the church where the President spoke and, with Dr. Pruden, co-sponsor of last night's session, said: "I don't see how we can face the subversive powers of the world unless we unite our religious strength."

He thought world religious leaders should sit around a table upon which "the forces of righteousness could unite."

Harrisburg, Sept. 29 (AP) — A bill empowering the state to start liquidation of the General State Authority went to the Senate Friday with House approval. The measure would authorize the commonwealth to take over financial obligations of the big borrow-and-build agency, as well as the state Highway and Bridge Authority.

A constitutional amendment, which would authorize the state to increase its debt limit by $215,000,000 to raise liquidation funds, goes before the voters for approval in the November general election.

Blowing the horns when you can't stop might well be called the horns of a dilemma.

As It Should Be

Judging by my mail too many motorists these days are troubled by things that are entirely normal about cars. This is a curious quirk at a time when there is so much that demands attention and correction. Typical was the complaint of a driver that he had to pull on the shift lever in order to get into reverse. He wondered why he couldn't shift into reverse as easily as into high, never realizing that to be able to do this would be courting a fine crack-up should he accidentally go into reverse when meaning to go into high.

There are those owners who think something had happened to the lighting system's protective control if the headlights start blinking. They do not know that circuit breakers, used in place of fuses, give this effect when a short develops. They are a double safety feature because they prevent the lights from falling altogether.

How To Test "Shocks"

Whether the shock absorbers on your car are doing their job can best be determined by having your mechanic disconnect the shocks from their lower stud when the car is up on a hoist. Take hold of the end of each shock and when moving it you can tell if there is sufficient resistance. Air pockets can be felt. In some shops they have a new shock absorber unit which you can also feel by way of comparison. The test of rocking a car up and down by its bumpers can also be used to good advantage, but it doesn't always tell the whole story.

It's More Than Comfort

Speaking of shock absorbers don't forget that these units do more than provide a comfortable ride. They have a lot to do with the car's stability, especially on curves, when you make a quick stop and when you are traveling wavy and rough roads. With a faulty shock absorber or two the car may dart and dive. It may fish tail when you have to stop quickly. The springs are, of course, the car's primary shock absorbers but way back in the 20's it was found that the springs need controls to enable them to do their best work. What we today call shock absorbers are really controls. Originally they were called snubbers.

Mechanic Joe Speaking

"There is nothing radical about adjusting the engine so that it varies from the manufacturer's original specifications, provided the results obtained are what the owner wants and are in line with accepted practice. Skillful drivers can benefit by having the ignition timed a few degrees ahead of the factory setting. They know how to handle the throttle should the engine ping on heavy pulls, and they will make allowances by using lower gears if the car happens to have a heavy load. In one recent instance it has been found an advantage to set the carburetor float level a little lower than the original setting. Because the fuel pump is unusually reliable on this job, to take care of high speed operation, the pressure often is too high at low speeds."

Poor Place For Stops

Not too many drivers realize that it is more difficult to stop a car on a roughly paved road than on one where the tires can come into more intimate contact with the road surface. The roughness has the same effect as reducing the tire-road area of contact. Be especially wary of roads that have been given a sanding or a top layer of gravel. Roughness will cause variations in braking and while this won't lead to a skid on such roads it does play havoc with the chassis.

Safety In The Dark

It has been quite some time in the preparation stage but a new safety device is worthy of mention. Purpose of this small round reflector is to serve as a safeguard should one of the headlights burn out at night. You just snap it over the dead lamp with its rubber suction cup and the driver of the car approaching sees the reflections of his own headlights and isn't confused by the dead lamp on your car.

The reflector can be placed on the back of the car to act as a safeguard when changing a tire at night. It can be worn on your coat if you are walking the road in the dark.

Getting It Straight

I hope you were taking a cooling swim and missed a portion of my column one day in the summer because things went wrong in a brief mention of ignition timing. Never mind how reversed the lines came off my dripping typewriter, but here and now I want to state the matter correctly, just for the records and in case any of you might be interested in the facts about the relation between the gap at spark plugs and the situation in ignition timing. It seems that the wider the breaker gap the more advanced the timing, whereas too little gap will retard it. Since there is normal wear on the little rubbing block of the breaker arm which rides the distributor shaft the gap tends to lessen as the miles pile up. This increases the "cam dwell" and retards the spark. Every degree change in the dwell brings a like change in timing.

My thanks to the experts who do me the honor of reading this column. And my apologies.

No Fogging Of Windows

Straight from France comes a new cloth that is designed to check the fogging of car windows in cold or damp weather. You merely wipe the glass with the cloth and then forget about the usual steaming when the weather is playing tricks. I tried it on my eye glasses, put them in a refrigerator and later brought them out into a humid room. Not a bit of fogging. At this writing the product is not on sale here. It should not be long arriving.

Having Trouble Starting?

Burned breaker points are a fruitful source of starting trouble but not too many owners realize just why. To understand this effect it is necessary to remember that the points are part of the primary ignition circuit which controls the secondary circuit by induction. If the current flowing in the primary is reduced by poor contacts there will be a marked drop in the voltage output of the coil. That means greatly reduced spark at the plugs. With the starter-motor drawing so heavily on the battery the combined reduction in secondary current is such that the engine may put on a real mule act.

It's A Motor Question

Q. Is there any harm in switching to another brand of motor oil if the engine always has been operated on one particular oil? H. F. B.

A. Such a switch is entirely practical, but make sure that the viscosity is the same if results have been satisfactory. I am assuming you are comparing premium grade oils which the car manufacturers recommend.

Q. Will you kindly let me know how it is that worn motor bearings cause high oil consumption? Wm. J. L.

A. In most engines oil is fed to the main and connecting rod bearings under pressure. If the bearings are worn the oil flows too freely, being tossed to the cylinder walls. Naturally the rings then have more work to do in controlling the oil.

Q. Is it better to have a disabled car pushed or towed? H. N.

A. This will depend on the nature of the trouble. If it is just a matter of trying to start the motor I prefer pushing. Should the engine of the disabled car suddenly go into action it can go ahead freely if being pushed.

Q. I have been told that it is necessary to have a vent hole in the distributor cap. The distributor on my car has no such hole, yet I have not had any ignition trouble. W. N. H.

A. Vents for the distributor are designed to allow escape of moisture from condensation. However, it is true that many distributors do not sweat. I would not drill a vent in the one on your car.

Q. The other day I saw the tail pipe of a car with the end completely blocked off. It was quite a fancy fixture for the pipe, but I do not see how the engine could operate properly. F. F. D.

A. This was something of an illusion because the particular fitment for the tail pipe has an opening on the bottom where it can't be seen. I used one of these on a car and could not see any loss of power.

Q. What is meant by the car "bottoming"? J. M., Jr.

A. When a car "bottoms" its frame hits the rubber bumpers on the axles. Inefficient shock absorbers on very weak springs will encourage this.

Q. I notice that when I push down hard on the accelerator to keep up speed on a hill I get the smell of gasoline. How can the carburetor be leaking when the motor is using a maximum amount of fuel? K. H. McB.

A. It isn't. What you smell are crankcase fumes from the oil filler pipe. The engine needs new rings.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern street, West Hartford, 7, Connecticut, and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

EDITORS RESENT ALL BARRIERS AGAINST NEWS

San Francisco, Sept. 29 (AP)—The men who run many of America's leading newspapers today complete an intensive four-day study of news problems with attention sharply focused on news-gathering barriers in this country as well as overseas.

The final session of the Associated Press Managing Editors association was scheduled to adjourn at noon.

Before ending their meeting the editors were to act on draft resolutions condemning the imprisonment of AP Correspondent William N. Oatis at Prague by Communist Czechoslovakia.

A special committee headed by J. Russell Wiggins, managing editor of the Washington Post, yesterday also drafted a response to the controversial new order of President Truman extending tight security regulations on information dispensed by civilian as well as military agencies.

The order when announced this week aroused immediate misgivings among the editors.

James S. Pope, chairman of the committee on freedom of information of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, predicted the order would "smother legitimate information about the operation of our government."

He disclosed that his committee had protested the order when it first was proposed more than two months ago.

The security order was designed to prevent information from civilian agencies leaking to potential enemies. It was announced in Washington.

A written report of the performance committee of the APME, headed by David Patten, Providence, R. I., Journal and Bulletin, warned that "there is more than one iron curtain." It said APME committees have been "allergic" to domestic problems of censorship, misleading or obstructive handouts, and to "every method open or hidden to distort the news."

The report said the greatest supervision of news was inside Iron Curtain countries and that "the condition is getting worse."

"Eye-brow Trail" in Dog Canyon, near Alamogordo, N. M., was the scene of five Indian battles in the '70's and '80's between Apaches and U. S. soldiers.

The plane, assigned to the 314th Troop Carrier Group, was enroute to Tokyo from Ashiya Air Force Base in southern Japan.

A C-46 Commando which also was enroute to Tokyo crashed and burned early today in foothills near Hakone, seven miles west of Atsugi. It was carrying a crew of six and five passengers.

Japanese firemen and youths carried the bodies from the C-119 crash down the slope of a rugged mountain.

Writes Songs To Repay His Victims

Pittsburgh, Sept. 29 (AP)—A convicted swindler is composing songs which he says he hopes can be sold to repay victims of his $212,000 housing fraud.

"I don't want a penny for myself," declared Raymond E. Reynolds, 52-year-old former builder who is serving a 10-year jail sentence. "My greatest desire is to pay back those people from whom I obtained the money."

The once-dapper contractor asked the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph in a letter to help him peddle his tunes, most of which deal with romantic themes.

Reynolds was convicted of accepting down payments on homes which were never built. He was arrested in May of 1950 after a nationwide search which ended in Los Angeles.

RAILROADS ASK RATE INCREASE

Philadelphia, Sept. 29 (AP)—While spokesmen for the commuting train passenger sat quietly and listened, railroads operating in Pennsylvania unveiled charts and figures to prove the commuter doesn't pay his share of passenger fare.

Witnesses for the Pennsylvania Railroad, Baltimore and Ohio and other railroads told the state Public Utility commission yesterday that higher commutation fares were necessary.

Only a handful of spectators were present at the hearing in city hall. Civic groups and other opposing groups will have their chance to testify later. They agreed to allow railroad officials' testimony to be read into the record. Opposing counsel will receive copies of the testimony, and will have the right to study it and cross-examine witnesses at the next hearing on October 24.

Richard H. Clare, passenger agent for the Pennsylvania railroad, said "Commutation traffic in 1950 represented 42.4 per cent of the total passengers carried, but produced only 6.4 per cent of the total passenger revenue of the Pennsylvania railroad."

The railroads, Clare said, are seeking increases which generally would add 75 cents to the cost of present weekly commutation tickets; $2.70 to the restricted (five-day-week) monthly tickets and $3.00 to unrestricted monthly tickets.

SENATORS AGREE
Washington, Sept. 29 (AP)—Pennsylvania's two U. S. senators, Edward Martin and James H. Duff, both Republicans, voted in favor of the $5,450,000,000 tax bill passed by the Senate last night 57 to 19. Both, however, opposed a plan for hiking personal income taxes an additional $2,500,000,000 above present levels by eliminating income-splitting benefits. The Senate turned back this proposal 62 to 14.

New York, Sept. 29 (AP)—The United Lutheran Church in America plans to have its members carry small pictures of Christ in their pockets this fall to remind everyone that "He is with them always." The cards, to be carried at home or abroad, also carry textual matter in five languages. The U.L.C.A. has some 2,250,000 members.

ed by Gen. Lucius Clay Harold Stassen, General Dwight D. Eisenhower and other prominent men, hopes to raise $6,000,000 to extend its program to Asia as well as Europe.

New Radio Station

During the past year it has constructed a short wave radio station to send messages to most of the European countries under Russian domination, has constructed a 135,000 watt medium wave station—the strongest in the world, beamed to Czechoslovakia, and has sent thousands of balloons carrying messages of Freedom across the border into Czechoslovakia.

In carrying its program of freedom messages directly to the people concerned, the Crusade for Freedom has turned operation of the medium wave station over to Czechoslovakian leaders in exile, under supervision of American technicians.

Similar plans are made for Asiatic stations, provided sufficient funds are available. Construction of stations in Asia, China, and elsewhere.

RADIO

New York, Sept. 29 (AP)—Radio and television go back to standard time tomorrow as the schedules take on some more of their fall dress. This is the week-end, too, for the start of regular coast to coast program relay in television. A special community chest radio broadcast Sunday night is to include a five-minute talk by President Truman, who also will be seen on TV via film.

In the switch to normal time, the radio networks will eliminate the double transmission used under daylight to meet local clock times. Television, which has been running daylight time only, will move back to the regular hours. This column, starting with Sunday's programs will carry all listings under eastern standard time.

Eight shows on three TV networks will become coast to coast programs for the first time tonight and tomorrow. Only two originate from Hollywood, the others coming from New York. They are: tonight—NBC 8 Jack Carson in All-Star Revue; NBC 9 Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca; NBC 10-30 Hit Parade; Sunday—ABC 7 p.m. Paul White-man Revue; CBS-TV 7:30 This Is Show Business; NBC-TV 8 Eddie Cantor in Comedy Hour from Hollywood; CBS-TV 9 Fred Waring's Music Hour; NBC-TV 10 Red Skelton in his TV Debut from Hollywood; CBS-TV 10 Conrad Nagel Celebrity Time with Marie Wilson and Jackie Robinson as guests.

"Give Your Best" is the title of the Community Chest program for 10:30 p.m. Sunday on all radio networks in which President Truman is to speak. Talent will include Bing Crosby, Dinah Shore and other. When the President talks at 10:55 all TV networks will cut into the program.

On Saturday night list: NBC—7:30 Living 1951; 9 Dimension X "Night Fall"; 9:30 Monty Woolley sketch; 9 Music Merry Go Round; 9:30 Bob and Ray; 10:30 Grand Ole Opry.

CBS—7:30 Desi Arnaz show; Gene Autry; 8:30 Hopalong Cassidy "Apaches Don't Need Guns," 9 Gang Busters "Partners in Crime"; 9:30 Broadway's My Beat; 10 (also TV) Song for Sale.

ABC—7:30 Space Patrol; 8 Dancing Party, two hours; 10 Saturday in Houston.

MBS—8 Twenty Questions; 8:30 Take A Number Quiz; 9 Hawaii Calls; 9:30 Guy Lombardo Music; 10 Chicago Theater Concert.

Television (eastern daylight—standard one hour earlier): NBC—7 Youth Forum, Sea. H. H. Humphrey of Minn.; 7:30 One Man's Family; CBS—7:30 Sammy Kaye show; 7:30 Beat the Clock; 8 Ken Murray Hour; 9 Faye Emerson show; 9:30 Show Goes On; 10 Songs for Sale; ABC—7:30 Stu Erwin film 8 Whitman's teenagers; 10 Chicago Famous Racing; 11 DuMont—9:30 Chicago Wrestling.

SHEDS NAMES

ed by Gen. Lucius Clay, Harold Stassen, General Dwight D. Eisenhower and other prominent men, hopes to raise $6,000,000 to extend its program to Asia as well as Europe.

New Radio Station

During the past year it has constructed a short wave radio station to send messages to most of the European countries under Russian domination, has constructed a 135,000 watt medium wave station—the strongest in the world, beamed to Czechoslovakia, and has sent thousands of balloons carrying messages of Freedom across the border into Czechoslovakia.

In carrying its program of freedom messages directly to the people concerned, the Crusade for Freedom has turned operation of the medium wave station over to Czechoslovakian leaders in exile, under supervision of American technicians.

Similar plans are made for Asiatic stations provided sufficient funds are raised to construct stations beamed to China and elsewhere in Asia, Chairman Sheads said.

high. Then the detractors of American enterprise say, "Science is discovering wonderful things but the private capitalist system is keeping them out of reach of the people. So we ought to have socialized medicine or government pill subsidies or government planning for the chemists—or whatever is the speaker's pet project."

However, the paper went on, "These misty-eyed socialists quickly drop the matter as soon as the chemical industry has cut the problem down to size. They point the finger of scorn when penicillin sells wholesale at $20 a 'dose' and forget the matter when it shortly comes down to 4 cents a partaking."

If anyone honestly thinks that the cause of healing, in any of its many manifestations, would be advanced by socialized medicine or government domination of the nation's medical personnel and facilities, he is blind to the facts. Progress, in any direction, flourishes in an air of freedom—not in an atmosphere of red tape, bureaucracy, political management and government monopoly.

A nation-wide Thanksgiving clothing appeal will be sponsored again this year by the Lutheran World Relief from November 18 to 25. Each Lutheran congregation affiliated with the National Lutheran Council is urged to make its church a depot and organize the ingathering for Thanksgiving week. One thousand tons of newsprint has been made available to Korea to make possible the replacement of public school textbooks destroyed by the Communists in their invasion of that country.

ored flooring. The concrete floor of the kitchen will be painted later as will the plaster walls of the kitchen. Pillars supporting the ceiling are of tile and white natcolite. Tops of the dining tables are natcolite of a monk's cloth design.

Facilities in the kitchen include a large walk-in refrigerator, a large storage room, and stoves, dishwashers and all the other utensils needed in cooking. A fan draws odors of cooking out of the kitchen. At the front of the kitchen are steam tables and gleaming metal tables over which the food can be served. Some of the equipment used in the kitchen was used previously in the smaller cafeteria which is replaced by the present one.

For some of the youngsters in the school the cafeteria will be a very familiar place. Because of lack of space, the unit is also being used as a study hall.

Opening of the cafeteria had to be delayed after the beginning of school because work on that section of the new addition to the high school building was not complete. Sewer and water connections and electrical work delayed the opening date.

A TAIL OF TWO CITIES!

WHEN a fellow moves from one town to another, he's interested in at least three things. Those things are: The availability of adequate housing, working conditions and the friendliness of people in the new community.

Naturally, first impressions are lasting, and . . . as he looks about him . . . he anticipates the best or the worst in accordance with the manner in which he is treated upon his arrival. . . Now, I can tell you what really set my tail a-wagging upon our arrival in Gettysburg.

We visited Wentz's. Not only was my master treated with the utmost cheerfulness, but with downright friendliness in that store. . . Of course, he won't let me sit on his new Kennar Siesta Lounge, but it certainly looks smart, and by-the-way . . . Mr. Wentz knows that a puppy likes a friendly pat on the head. . . That's my tail of two cities, and . . . frankly . . . I like the people I've met in Gettysburg.
